

COLVILLE
COMMUNITY HEALTH TRUST

Mmmmm.....cake. Chocolate cake. Carrot cake with cream cheese icing. Ginger cake with a warm lemon glaze. Plain cakes that taste great. Fancy cakes that show a bit of creative genius. Healthy cakes with lots of natural ingredients...all are sooo good. What's your favourite? And why am I talking about cake? Because...the Health Trust is hosting...

The Great Colville Cake Competition

7 December in the Colville Hall

and we want to see your best cake efforts lined up for tasting and enjoying with a cuppa and a friend. Someone will win Best Cake and get a rosette, and all the fame that goes with such an achievement. But really, it's just about having a chance to taste LOTS of different cakes and enjoy an afternoon out with happy people all doing the same thing. So dust off those recipe books, dig out the piping bags and nozzles, the cake stands, the molds, the sprinkles, and make a plan. The more cakes we have, and the bigger the variety, the happier everyone will be. Keep an eye out for more detailed notices in the December Panui, and around town closer to the date.

To enter a cake: adults $10 / children $5. To taste and vote: $5.

(All proceeds go The Colville Community Health Trust Building Fund)
